INTUG competition and choice

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- infrastructure and service-based competition are both essential
- we need competitive provision of unbundled elements
  - CPE/handsets
  - networks
  - services and content
- continuing need for independent regulatory intervention

INTUG subscriber lines

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- introduction of competition
- ending the monopoly
- carrier selection
- carrier pre-selection
- number portability
- directory services
- yet still predominantly in the hands of the historic operators

INTUG local loop unbundling

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- historic operators' response:
  - deny, delay and degrade (3D)
  - saturation with their own services
- has made it very hard to regulate
- collapse of several operators in USA
  - financial markets
  - tactics of RBOCs

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'ATUG' in a bold, red, sans-serif font.

INTUG wireless local loop

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- slow allocation process
- different frequencies and technologies
- successes and failures
- knock-on effects of:
  - 3G spectrum allocation
  - dot.com crash
- only a few historic operators have been allowed into WLL market

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'ATUG' in a bold, red, sans-serif font.

INTUG lessons from Sri Lanka

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- extremely low teledensity
- WLL introduced in order to:
  - to stimulate SLT
  - to open new markets
- doubled the size of the market
- improved quality

INTUG success of GSM

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- state support for adoption of a standard
- spread out from Europe to most of the world (with some CDMA and PHS)
- consolidation
- oligopolistic practices lead to exorbitant international roaming and termination charges

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'ATUG' in a bold, red, sans-serif font.

INTUG roaming inquiry

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- European Commission is the competition authority
- instigated by INTUG
- preliminary findings against operators
- dawn raids on 11 July 2001 on:
  - British Telecom
  - Deutsche Telekom
  - France Telecom (Orange)
  - Vodafone
- not just a European problem
it is global!

INTUG failure of 3G?

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- self-immolation of operators in German and UK auctions
- out of favour with financial markets
- attempting to control downstream service markets
- poor brand names
- have to succeed with GPRS first, but roll-out looks very bad

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'A', 'T', 'U', and 'G' in a stylized, bold, red font. The letters are slightly overlapping and have a white outline.

INTUG wireless LANs

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- different standards
  - IEEE 802.11b Wi-Fi
  - Hyperlan
  - other forms of 802.11
- in “unlicensed” spectrum
  - 2.4 GHz
  - 5.8 GHz
- needs additional security measures

INTUG where are WLANs?

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- campuses, factories and offices
- hotels
- airport lounges
- motorway service stations and railway stations
- trains?
- Starbucks' coffee shops
- pizza and hamburger bars

INTUG m-commerce

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- does it exist?
- how is it different from E-commerce?
  - customisation?
  - location-based services?
- is ubiquitous commerce more accurate?
- what is the business mode for this?

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'A', 'T', 'U', and 'G' in a stylized, bold, red font. The 'A' and 'T' are connected, and the 'U' and 'G' are also connected, with a slight gap between the 'T' and 'U'.

INTUG a common global pattern

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- persistent market failures (e.g., leased lines and roaming charges)
- incumbents have world class delaying tactics
- competition law is very slow
- a continuing need for regulation
- collapse of high-tech share prices has:
  - blunted competition
  - stunted R&D

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'ATUG' in a bold, red, sans-serif font.

INTUG summary

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- pressing need for new entrants to create and increase competition
- we must press on with LLU, WLL and other alternative means of access
- we still do not know what the Mobile Internet and broadband services will really be so we must allow for all possibilities

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'ATUG' in a bold, red, sans-serif font.

INTUG consolidation

ATUG, Brisbane 11 October 2001

www.INTUG.net

- an oligopoly of operators
- common behaviours
- searching for global business models
- regulators and users face recurring problems

The logo for ATUG, consisting of the letters 'A', 'T', 'U', and 'G' in a stylized, bold, red font. The 'A' and 'T' are connected, and the 'U' and 'G' are also connected, with a slight gap between the 'T' and 'U'.
